JB (1) 1 O'Brien, Caldewriver Storm N' Teacup for Katillien. My notes just say absolutely fabulous, I knew this would be my best of breed as soon as she entered the ring even at this early stage . totally balanced both standing and on the move. A superb example of the breed in every aspect. Delighted to award her the CC and no hesitation whatsoever in declaring her BOB. and thrilled that she took Group 4. This girl will not have long to wait to achieve her crown. I will follow with interest.

GB (2,1) 1 Kearns, Rudishaw Waltzing Matilda. Good feminine head with plenty of furnishings. Nice arched neck into well placed shoulders Nicely angulated both front and back balanced overall, good depth and ribbed well back. Moved well.

PGB (2) 1 Hillis, Bareve Best By Magic. Good Head with alert expression strong neck into reasonable forehand assembly. Good topline and sufficient depth of brisket, angulation could be better and movement was typical of construction. 2 Galbraith, Germanus Plot Meets Kettle At Inverwire. Pleasing bitch with feminine head and kind expression Arched neck into reasonable shoulders stood a bit wide in front. Good coat and furnishings. Well sprung ribs. Would prefer better angulation and again movement was typical of construction.
